Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Friday 19 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly cloudy.

Today:
A cloudy start with some mist, drizzle and hill fog. The cloud lifting during the day and skies brightening, perhaps the odd sunny break later. Winds light or moderate from the northwest. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Tonight:
Rather cloudy skies are expected during the evening. However, the cloud thinning and breaking overnight with clear spells developing. Chilly in rural parts by dawn and winds mostly light. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Saturday:
A dry and bright day with some good spells of sunshine. The best of the sunshine around Aberdeen and Stonehaven and feeling quite warm although breezy. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Mainly dry and bright with the best of the sunshine around North Sea coasts. Patchy rain possible in the west on Tuesday. Feeling pleasant in any sunshine, winds mostly light.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.